STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 1
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

1 Plaintiffs HTC Corporation and HTC America, Inc. (together, HTC) and Defendants
2 Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson and Ericsson Inc. (together, Ericsson), in the interest of 3 avoiding ancillary litigation of discovery issues relating to party and/or non-party confidential
4 commercial and/or proprietary information, stipulate and agree as follows:

5 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

6 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or 7 private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties
8 hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The 9 parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket
10 protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public 11 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 12 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle 13 parties to file confidential information under seal.

14 Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 26(c)(2), the parties began with the District's Model
15 Protective Order and have identified departures from the model in redline, attached hereto as 16 Exhibit 1. The stipulated/requested modifications to the Model Protective Order are necessary
17 because of the nature of this case, involving two highly technical companies and the certain 18 disclosure in discovery of voluminous amounts of documents, containing among other things, 19 internal company strategy and pricing information, technical licensing negotiations and 20 agreements between the parties and non-parties, and the function and operation of patented
21 products. The modifications herein closely resemble many of the modifications to the Model
22 Protective Order in an order previously entered by this Court in a patent case, Smart Skins LLC v.
23 Microsoft Corp, Case No. 2:15-cv-00544-MJP (W.D. Wash. 2015) (Dkt. # 58).

24 2. CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

25 Confidential material may be designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 26 CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 1
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

1       CONFIDENTIAL material shall include the following documents and tangible things
2 produced or otherwise exchanged: non-public design and technical information; non-public
3 claim charts; non-public marketing, accounting, sales, investment, and financial information;
4 non-public research and development information; and personal and/or private identifying
5 information (e.g., birthdates, bank account numbers, social security numbers, home addresses).

6       HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material shall 7 include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged: trade
8 secrets and sensitive CONFIDENTIAL material, the disclosure of which to another party or non-
9 party would create a substantial risk of harm that could not be avoided by less restrictive means.

10       Unless otherwise specified, the use of “confidential” herein corresponds to both
11 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY 12 material.

13       3. SCOPE

14       The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 15 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
16 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
17 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

18       However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 19 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

20       4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

21       4.1       Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
22 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
23 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to 24 the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential
25 material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner
26 that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 2
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

1       4.2     Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise
2 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 3 disclose any confidential material only to:

4                 (a) the receiving party’s outside counsel of record in this action, as well as 5 employees of outside counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for 6 this litigation;

7                 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of 8 the receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

9                 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 10 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit 11 A);

12                 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

13                 (e) document translation, copy, document management, electronic 14 discovery, or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the translation, management,
15 and/or duplication of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy
16 or imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties
17 and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material upon completion
18 of the service;

19                 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 20 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
21 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 22 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 23 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted
24 under this agreement;

25                 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a
26 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 3
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

(h) trial and jury consultants, including, but not limited to, mock jurors who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and

(i) any mediator retained by the parties or appointed by the Court in this action and employees of such mediator who are assisting in the conduct of the mediation.

4.3 Disclosure of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES

ONLY Material. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material only to those persons identified in Section 4.2(a, c-e, and g-i); provided, however, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material shall be disclosed to persons identified in Section 4.2(c) only as provided by the terms of Section 4.4.

4.4 Procedure for Challenging Expert or Consultant. The party proposing to provide material marked HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY to an expert or consultant (i.e., the receiving party) shall provide the producing party with: (i) a current curriculum vitae for the expert or consultant, which shall include a description of past and present employers by whom the expert or consultant has been employed and persons or entities by whom the expert or consultant has been engaged in any consulting or expert engagements within the last five years, and (ii) a copy of a completed and signed copy of Exhibit A hereto. If an expert or consultant is precluded by virtue of a non-disclosure agreement from disclosing either the existence or nature of any such engagement or the identity of the entity for which the services were or are being performed, then the expert or consultant shall state that certain information is being withheld on that basis and shall supplement his/her disclosure with such additional information as he/she believes would be helpful to the parties and the Court in determining whether any undisclosed consulting relationship would create a likelihood that the expert or consultant would have a conflict of interest in the engagement for this litigation, or should otherwise be precluded from acting as an expert or consultant in this litigation.

STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 4
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

(a) Within five business days after the producing party's receipt of the information described in Section 4.4 and the signed Exhibit A, the producing party may object in writing to the proposed expert or consultant if facts available to that party show there is a reasonable likelihood disclosure of the confidential material to the proposed expert or consultant would create a risk of harm to the producing party. Failure to object in writing to a proposed expert or consultant within five business days will be deemed a waiver of any objection to the proposed expert or consultant.

(b) If the producing party objects to the proposed expert or consultant, the parties shall meet and confer in good faith in an attempt to resolve their dispute without resort to the Court. If the parties' dispute remains unresolved ten business days following the producing party's communication of its objection, then the producing party shall seek a ruling from the court as to the merits of the producing party's objection. Pending a ruling by the court, the proposed expert or consultant shall not have access to material or information designated by the producing party unless such access has been previously approved. Failure to seek a ruling from the court as described above within ten business days following the producing party's communication of its objection will be deemed a waiver of any objection to the proposed expert or consultant.

4.5 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

5. DESIGNATED PROTECTED MATERIAL

STIPULATED & JOINT MOTION FOR
PROTECTIVE ORDER – 5
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

1       5.1    Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party
2 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take
3 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
4 standards. To the extent it is practical to do so, the designating party must designate for 5 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 6 qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which 7 protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

8           Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 9 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 10 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 11 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

12          If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated 13 for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other 14 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

15       5.2    Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 16 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 17 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 18 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

19           (a)    Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic 20 documents and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or 21 trial proceedings), the designating party must affix the word CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY 22 CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY to each page of a document that 23 contains confidential material. To the extent it is practical to do so, if only a portion or portions 24 of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify 25 the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. Until such time as this fifteen day period has concluded, the entirety of the deposition transcript shall be presumptively treated by the receiving party as having been designated by the producing party as CONFIDENTIAL. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference. Any party that desires to use non-party confidential information at trial agrees to notify the relevant non-party in advance of the pre-trial conference to provide an opportunity for the non-party to intervene. Confidential material that the court determines should be sealed at trial shall be sealed wherever referenced in trial exhibits, testimony, demonstratives, or otherwise.

(c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY. If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertant Failures to Designate: If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

1       6.1    Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 2 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality
 3 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 4 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 5 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 6 original designation is disclosed.

7       6.2    Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
 8 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 9 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in
 10 a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
 11 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The 12 certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to 13 confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

14       6.3    Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
 15 intervention, the challenging party may file and serve a motion to withdraw confidentiality under 16 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 17 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 18 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 19 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 20 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

21      7.    PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
 22 LITIGATION

23       If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
 24 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as CONFIDENTIAL or 25 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – OUTSIDE ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, that party must:

(a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts

PROTECTIVE ORDER – 9
(No. 2:17-cv-00534-MJP)

1 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 2 destruction.

3 Notwithstanding this provision, outside counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of 4 all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
5 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert
6 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

7 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a
8 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

9 11. NON-PARTY DISCOVERY

10 A non-party's use of this Protective Order to designate confidential information does not 11 entitle that non-party access to any other confidential information produced by any other party or 12 non-party.
